A Legal Awareness Programme on World Day of Social Justice

20 February, 2025 (Thursday)

On 20th February 2025, The Faculty of Law, ICFAI University, Himachal Pradesh organized a legal awareness programme to commemorate World Day of Social Justice. A powerful play on caste discrimination, gender justice and labour rights was presented by the law students at Govt. High School Surajpur, Baddi, where around 70 students of the school witnessed the play. The theme of the play was “Nyaya ki Awaaz - Voice of Justice”. The play was performed by the law students addressing various social issues, including caste based discrimination degrading the society, gender based violence, discrimination against marginalized communities, access to justice for the labourers. The event served as a platform for students to engage with social justice issues and promote awareness about the importance of access to justice.
