73rd Independence Day celebration at IUHP – Aug 15, 2019

On the occasion of 73rd Independence Day, IUHP celebrated this day with pride and festivity. Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. (Dr) H P Singh, VSM hoisted the tricolour at IUHP. In his address to the University, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor stressed on the responsibility of each and every member of the University towards nation building and renewed the commitment of the university towards empowering the students with knowledge & skills. The Registrar Brig. Ashwini Kumar Sharma and all faculty members including hostel students were present on the occasion. Security staff participated in the full dress and carried out march past. Sweets were distributed to all present at the end of the Program.

Earlier On 14th August, a special event was organized at IUHP Auditorium by 'Literary Club' of students to celebrate Independence Day. A large number of students participated in poster making competition and some students shared their personal views on the achievement and progress of our Nation.
