

The ICFAI University, Himachal Pradesh celebrated International Mother Language Day – Feb 21, 2020

The ICFAI University, Himachal Pradesh celebrated International Mother Language Day on the 21st February, 2020. All faculty members and students participated in the event. The students spoke about the importance of their respective mother languages and also sang songs to emphasize the need of their mother language. The students and the faculty members had a wonderful experience with the celebration.

